

Press Release

A J Bell appoints new Business Development Manager

24th February 2009

A J Bell today announces the appointment of Glyn Jones as Business Development Manager for the South East and London.

Glyn joins from Fidelity FundsNetwork having spent 8 years working as Regional Sales Manager for the London area where he was responsible for the development of business from key intermediaries. He brings a broad range of experience to A J Bell having been involved in Fidelity's platform business from launch. Glyn also has experience of the fund management, marketing and service areas of the business.

Malcolm Gordon, Business Development Director says, "I am delighted to welcome Glyn to A J Bell. His appointment will enable us to increase our presence and the support that we are able to offer to advisers in London and the South East."

Glyn says "I look forward to working with such an innovative and forward looking company. In the short time that I've been here, it is clear why A J Bell has such an excellent reputation for service"
